This intense one month academic summer program will provide international students with an overall knowledge of aeronautic fundamentals in the world capital of Aeronautics and Space industry. It will be also a great opportunity to experience Toulouse Student life and French culture.

WHO IS IT FOR?

The Summer School is open to students who have a minimum of 3 years Bachelor degree in engineering and who wish to broaden their knowledge in the field of Aeronautic engineering.
PROGRAM

▷ 4 modules of 100 hours of courses in Aeronautics Engineering entirely taught in English:
  - Aeronautic fundamentals
  - Aircraft structure
  - Propulsion and Aerodynamics

▷ An insight into a real working environment:
  - Airbus industry and Aeroscopia, the museum of aeronautics
  - 40 mn flight operated by an instructor

▷ 8 hours of French language courses

▷ A program of excursions:
  - Toulouse and its typical gastronomy
  - Visit of Lourdes, an exceptional touristical sightseeing in the Pyrenees mountains,
  - The Medieval Village of Saint Cirq Lapopie (french label for the most beautiful villages in France)
  - Social events

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

ACCOMMODATION
Students will be housed in an individual room with private bathroom and shared kitchen in one of the University’s hall of residence located near the Campus.

COST
3 270 € including*:
▷ all teaching and tutorials
▷ accommodation in single room
▷ lunches (from Monday to Friday)
▷ all activities and excursions
▷ welcome breakfast
▷ farewell cocktail

* The cost does not include flights, insurances (medical insurance), visa, breakfasts, dinners and all extra costs.

TIMETABLE
The course are held from July 1st to 26th.

LIMITED NUMBER OF PLACES AVAILABLE

HOW TO APPLY?
Please contact the International relations office of the University of Toulouse at:
short.programs@univ-toulouse.fr en.univ-toulouse.fr #MakeItHappenTogether