- CITE MEDIEVALE DE CARCASSONNE

Listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1997, this city, whose origins date back to the Gallo-Roman era, owes its fame to its double enclosure that is nearly 3km long and comprises 52 towers, which dominates the Aude valley.

To visit Carcassonne is to take a journey back in time to 2500 years ago.....Nestled at the top of a hill, the Medieval City dominates the whole city and is said to be one of the best preserved medieval ensembles in the world. Come and discover this jewel of our history and stroll through its charming streets and alleys. It is a real immersion in the Middle Ages.
